Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago Hires Public Affairs Professional

The Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago (MWRD) Board of Commissioners has hired a new public affairs professional to lead MWRD's internal and external communications.

Allison Fore recently joined MWRD after serving almost four years as director of media relations for the Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM), the state's environmental regulatory agency.

She previously served as director of communications for Indiana Secretary of State Todd Rokita, as a marketing and communications specialist with former Illinois State Treasurer Judy Baar Topinka, and as a legislative assistant with the Illinois General Assembly.

Fore has a Masters of Arts degree from the University of Chicago and a Bachelors of Science degree from Indiana University.

"Allison has extensive experience in government and communications plus a genuine enthusiasm that will help build on the great partnerships we have with Cook County businesses and residents," said MWRD Executive Director David St. Pierre. "Her strong leadership skills will definitely enhance communications and our efforts to educate the public."

Fore can be reached at allison.fore@mwr.org or (312) 751-6626.
